

fig. 299 (p. 175)
Modesty plate for little girls, made of an alloy of gold and silver Indonesia, south Sulawesi: Bugis people; 19th/20th c.
 H 7.5 cm, W 6.8 cm
 Gold and silver alloy; silver top

fig. 300 (p. 175)
Man's finely decorated silver tobacco box (celapa), worn attached to the belt
 Indonesia, Sulawesi: Bugis people; similar to boxes found on the Malay Peninsula; early 20th c.
 Diam. 7.5 cm, D 7 cm
 Silver

fig. 301 (p. 175)
Man's set of a betel nut box and a lime box connected by a chain (cimbul)
 Indonesia, Sumatra; similar sets are also found on the Malay Peninsula; early 20th c.
 Diam. of larger box 6.3 cm, D 4.5 cm; L (total, spread out) 42 cm
 Silver

fig. 302: right (p. 175)
Decorative comb made of buffalo horn and silver
 Indonesia, Lombok: Watu Telu people; early 20th c.
 H 19.8 cm, W 10.5 cm
 Buffalo horn, silver

fig. 303: above; fig. 304 (detail): top right (p. 175)
Ceremonial necklace of woven silver wire, expanded at regular intervals to form beads
 Indonesia, Sumbawa; early 20th c.
 H (as shown) 34 cm
 Silver wire

