

fig. 366 (p. 212)
 Pair of heavy, solid silver hairpins, each with three cone-shaped elements on top Golden Triangle; early 20th c.
 H 15.5 cm, W of top 4.7 cm
 Silver

fig. 367 (p. 212)
 Light shell-shaped hairpin with attachments of four fish and numerous dangles Laos; early 20th c.
 H (with dangles) 18 cm; W of shell shape 7.5 cm
 Silver

fig. 368: above (p. 212)
 Hair ornament in the shape of a hat, displaying Chinese characters and flowers symbolic of the seasons, with a wooden hairpin Laos: Tai Lue (Dai) people, who are also found in China, Yunnan; second half 20th c.
 H (of hat) 7 cm, Diam. 13 cm; L of pin 18.5 cm
 Low-grade silver, wood

fig. 369: right (p. 212)
 Burmese amber ear decorations, worn horizontally in the earlobe, pointing forward
 Myanmar (Burma), Kachin State: Hkahku people; early to mid 20th c.
 H 7.5 cm, Diam. 1.5 cm
 Burmese amber, also called burmite or patlokan