

fig. 585 (pp. 344, 347)
Woman's forehead ornament (ildirgitsch) featuring carnelians and two blue beads to deflect the 'evil eye'
 Central Asia: Turkoman people; mid 20th c.
 Silver, carnelians, blue glass beads
 H (with tassels) from 27.5 to 11 cm, W 34.5 cm

fig. 586 (p. 344)
Unusual forehead ornament which combines elements of the egme and the ildirgitsch (figs 584 and 585)
 Central Asia: Turkoman people; early 20th c.
 Silver, gilding, carnelians
 H (with tassels) from 20 to 12.5 cm, W 34.5 cm

fig. 587: left (p. 344)
Woman's heavy and imposing plait decoration (satschmondschuk); worn on the back
 Central Asia: Yomud Turkoman people; 19th/20th c.
 H (without chains, but with tassels) 53 cm, W 16 cm
 Silver, gilding, carnelians

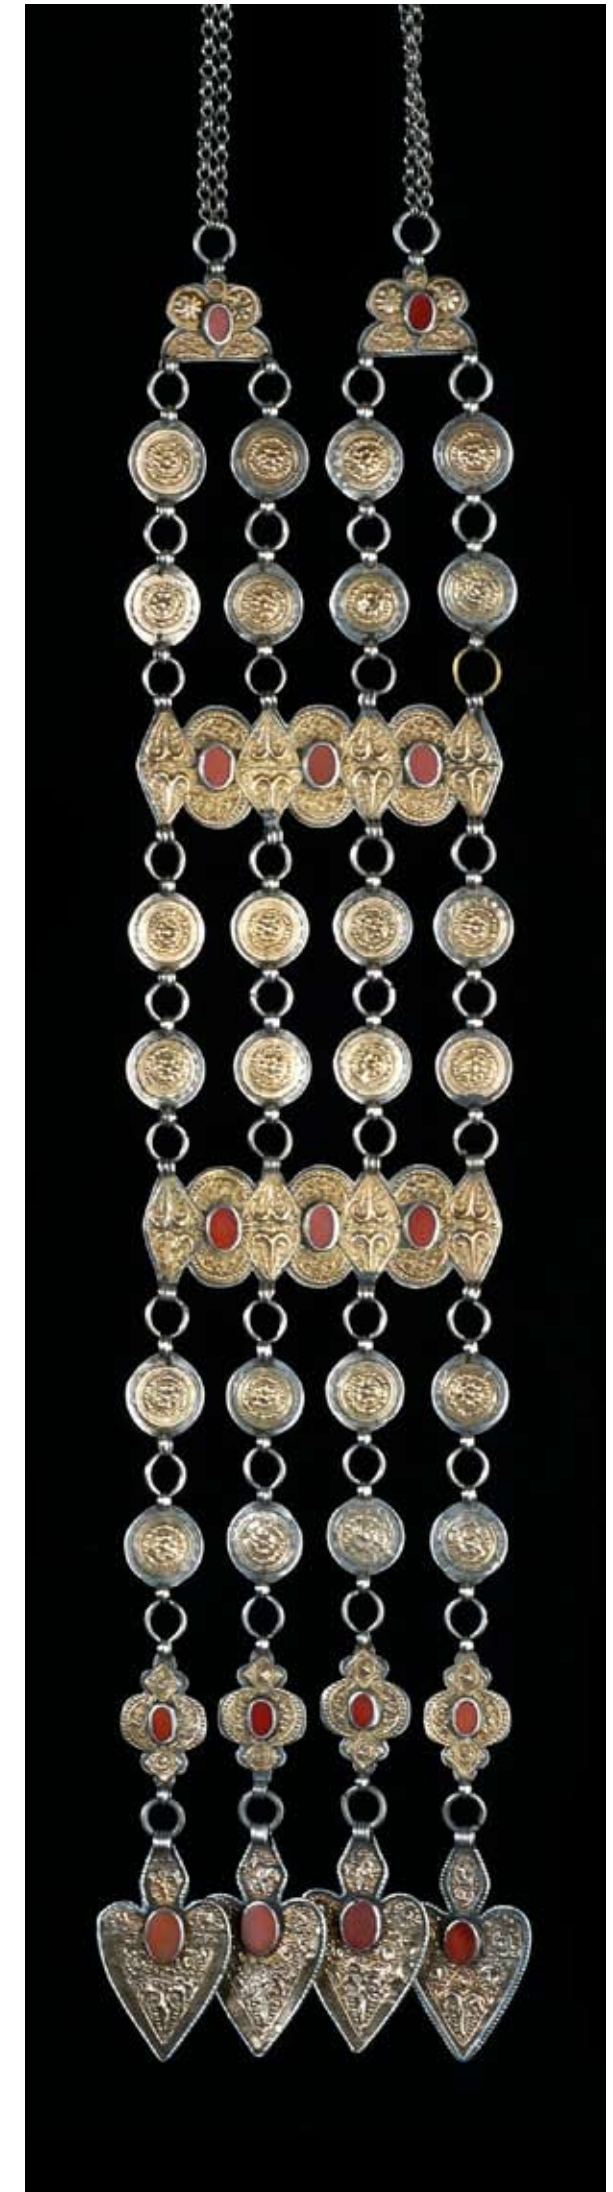

fig. 588: right (p. 344)
Woman's plait decoration which includes coins and heart-shaped pendants (satschlik)
 Central Asia: Turkoman people; early 20th c.
 H (without chains at top) 53 cm, W 10.7 cm
 Silver, gilding, carnelians, Afghan silver coins