

fig. 119: opposite bottom (p. 67)
Chief's waist band
 PNG, Milne Bay Province, Trobriand Islands;
 early 20th c.
 L (spread out, without straps) 68 cm, H 6 cm
 Red spondylus 'currency' shells, white shells, cloth
 South Australian Museum, Adelaide
 Said to have been donated to a missionary between World Wars I and II
 SAM A58657

fig. 120: opposite top right (p. 67)
*Armband made of a human jaw-bone,
 and wood wound with cane*
 PNG, Milne Bay Province, Louisiade Archipelago;
 19th/20th c.
 H 6.5 cm, W 12.5 cm, D (front to back) 11 cm
 Human bone and teeth, wood, cane, shell ring

fig. 121: opposite top left (p. 68)
Circular pendant made of dogs' teeth
 PNG, Milne Bay Province, Bartle Bay
 (eastern mainland); 19th/20th c.
 Diam. 7.5 cm
 Dogs' teeth, fibre string
 South Australian Museum, Adelaide
 Collected early 20th century
 SAM A19893

fig. 122 (p. 68)
Shell earrings in the shape of 'cog wheels'
 PNG, Milne Bay Province, Massim District; 19th/20th c.
 Diam. 7 cm
 Clam shell
 South Australian Museum, Adelaide
 'Old Collection' (before 1911)
 SAM A8707, A8709

fig. 123 (p. 68)
Coconut-shell and shell earrings
 PNG, Oro Province, Collingwood Bay; 19th c.
 Coconut, shells, fibre
 Diam. 4 cm
 South Australian Museum, Adelaide
 Donated in 1908
 SAM A37406

